

August 9, 2019

Mexico Protests

Dear Valued Customer,

Please be informed the continued protests in Mexico had been affecting port operations and the flow of goods on different regions around the country and across all modes.

The protesting started on August 8, 2019 and is expected to continue for the immediate future. To date, there has been blockage of major highways and rail (Distritos de Toluca, Caltzontzin y Acambaro), also total closure for Manzanillo & Altamira ports. There have been a number of delays on shipments, which are continued to be expected as protesting continues.

There has been no official communication from Mexican authority at this point, but from our knowledge these are the main points being affected:

More updates will be provided as they become available.

Thank you for being our valued customer. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact C.H. Robinson for further information.

Sincerely,
C.H. Robinson

Our information is compiled from a number of sources that to the best of our knowledge are accurate and correct. It is always the intent of our company to present accurate information. C.H. Robinson accepts no liability or responsibility for the information published herein.

