U.S. Customs and Border Protection Virtual Trade Week

Dear Valued U.S. Import Customer,

On August 14, 2020, U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) announced they are hosting their first Virtual Trade Week from September 8 – 11, 2020. This event is replacing the CBP Trade Symposium, an in-person event held annually where importers and exporters can meet with customs directly. This is a unique opportunity in the trade to participate with CBP to understand what their priorities are and consider how to align your business.

Session Topics include:

- United States-Mexico-Canada-Agreement (USMCA)
- Forced Labor
- Customs Trade Partnership Against Terrorism (CTPAT)
- E-Commerce
- 21st Century Customs Framework (21CFF)

Each session is approximately 2 hours in length. There is no fee to attend this event. You can choose to attend only the sessions you which to participate in. You can register here.

For any questions, please contact CBP by email at TradeEvents@cbp.dhs.gov

Thank you for being our Valued Customer. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact your C.H. Robinson commercial representative for further information.

Sincerely,

C.H. Robinson
