Proposed Changes to Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Regulations

Dear Valued U.S. Import Customer,

On August 13, 2020, the U.S. Department of Commerce published a proposed rule requesting comments for modifications of regulations for antidumping and countervailing duty (AD/CVD) laws. A full description of the changes can be found in the Federal Register Notice 85 FR 49472. A few key proposed changes are:

- Establishing a deadline for comments on industry support by interested parties
- Revising numerous provisions regarding new shipper reviews to address abuse of current procedures and confirm statutory changes
- Revising numerous provisions concerning scope inquiries and necessary resources, deadlines and burdensome requirements
- Modifications for importer certifications for payment and/or reimbursement of AD/CVD duties on entries subject to AD orders

Comments should be submitted through the Federal eRulemaking Portal at <http://www.regulations.gov> and reference docket number ITA-2020-0001. Deadline for comments is September 14, 2020. Comments can also be submitted by mail or courier to:

U.S. Department of Commerce
Attention: Jeffrey I. Kessler, Assistant Secretary for Enforcement and Compliance
Room 1870
1401 Constitution Ave. NW
Washington, DC 20230

Additionally, U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) announced via CSMS Message # 43696846 that a new AD/CVD Public Message site was deployed on August 21, 2020 to provide updated format that functions similar to the revised ACE Secure Data Portal. Link to the updated site is <https://aceservices.cbp.dhs.gov/adcvdweb>.

Thank you for being our Valued Customer. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact your C.H. Robinson commercial representative for further information.
